Baltimore 4:30 P. M.—Two more ballots taken this afternoon, result in no nomination but little change. They will continue to vote until a nomination is made.

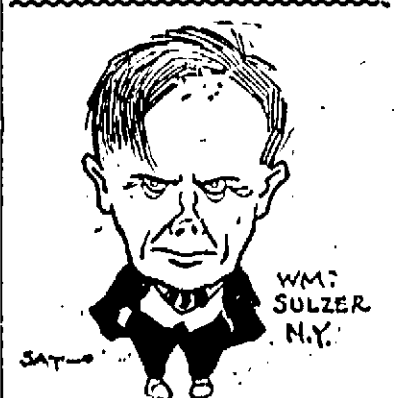

who still are in the presidential race with the support of Indiana's 30 votes are being much discussed as vice presidential possibilities.

The first ballot for nomination for president was as follows: Clark 440, Wilson 312, Harmon 148, Underwood 117, Marshall 31, Baldwin 22, Sulzer 22, Bryan 1. Absent 2. Necessary to choice, 728.

Alabama lead off with 21 votes for Representative Underwood; Arizona gave Clark his first six votes. Arkansas added 18 to the Clark roll. California fell in line with 26 and Colorado added 12. Connecticut's 14 votes went to Governor Baldwin. Delaware broke the tie for Governor Wilson, giving him six. Florida added 12 to Underwood. Georgia went solidly for Representative Underwood. Idaho went 8 for Clark, followed by 58 from Illinois.

There was a scattering applause, but the roll call proceeded. Indiana's 30 went to Governor Marshall "Favor to son." Iowa took her place in line with the Clark forces, Kansas and accordance with a caucus held by the New York delegation. North Carolina gave Wilson 16 1/2 votes, Harmon 1/2 vote, and Underwood 7. North Dakota's ten votes went to Wilson. Ohio offered a surprise. It has been supposed that Wilson would get the 18 to 19 votes and the vote was split as follows: Harmon 25, Wilson, 10, Clark 1, Bryan 1 and 1 absent. Oklahoma divided 10 for Clark, 10 for Wilson. Oregon went solidly for Wilson. Pennsylvania put 71 into the Wilson column and gave Governor Harmon 5. Rhode Island's ten went solidly for Clark. South Dakota gave Wilson 18 and North Dakota gave him 10 more. The Tennessee six votes went to Clark and Wilson. Harmon and Underwood. Texas cast 40 votes for Wilson. Utah Wilson 5, Clark 1 1/2, Harmon 1/2, and Vermont added 8 to the Baldwin vote. Virginia gave Wilson 9 1/2 and Underwood 1 1/2. Washington and West Virginia went solidly for Clark. Wisconsin gave Clark 4, Wilson, 19, not voting 1. Wyoming gave Clark 6. Alaska vote Clark 4, and Sulzer 2. Porto Rico gave Clark 6. Hawaii divided Clark two and Underwood one.

After sitting through the night the democratic national convention finished the first ballot on the presidential nomination shortly before seven this morning. No choice in fact, all of the candidates were so far away from the two thirds vote necessary to nominate, that delegates today looked forward to a long hard fight.

After the first ballot the convention at 7:15 took recess until four this afternoon. In the meantime there will be much studying of the figures on the presidential vote and many conferences among the leaders.

As was expected Clark led all of the candidates on the first ballot. He received 440 1/2 votes to 343 to Woodrow Wilson, his nearest rival. This however left the Speaker 286 1/2 votes short of the necessary two thirds.

Governor Judson Harmon added by New York's solid block of 30 votes was given a total of 148 and Under-demonstrations the names of Oscar W. Underwood, Champ Clark and Shinn J. Baldwin were before the convention. At 2:10 a. m. New Jersey was recognized to nominate Woodrow Wilson and a wild demonstration began. Indications at that time were that a first ballot would not be reached before daybreak.

Despite the heat and the length of the session, the galleries were still crowded with men and women.

An enthusiastic Clark man climbed to the platform and moved that Clark be nominated by acclamation. He put the question himself and declared it carried. The demonstration had then been under way half an hour and the din continued unabated. The procession of standards climbed the steps of the platform and the state insignia were raised high above the crowd. The carlars were driven from the platform and were forced to content themselves with standing on the steps.

Spoken Clark's daughter, Miss Genevieve, appeared on the platform. She was raised on a chair, a flag was draped about her and she led the cheering.

"I think this is just awful," she laughed to those about her. The Clark demonstration lasted one hour and five minutes.

At 1:30 a. m. the democratic leaders had agreed that the convention should remain in session until all nominations had been made and a ballot taken. It was evident the ballot was several hours away as many demonstration for Baldwin. It lasted but a few minutes. The Baldwin adherents were not many but fairly longed and while their demonstration lasted it was quite a noisy one.

A large number of the newspaper correspondents under the direction of a cheer leader, helped out the Baldwin enthusiasts.

At 2:08 A. M. the call of the states was resumed. Delaware yielded to New Jersey. John W. Westcott of that state went forward to nominate Gov. Woodrow Wilson. The Wilson people did not wait for his speech to begin before beginning their demonstration.

Hats were thrown in the air, banners broke out and there was a noisy din both on the floor and in the galleries. One of the Wilson banners was hoisted in the Ohio delegation and read "Ohio gives 19 votes for Wilson."

From a side entrance a parade filed into the hall. Banners bearing the names of twenty New York congressmen and the words "Wilson and War" were carried by the marchers. Wilson banners of every description followed into the hall. The New Jersey, Texas and Pennsylvania standards swung into the procession.

Many of the marchers were not delegates but outsiders and spectators. Half a dozen uniformed messenger boys went into the parade.

His Wilson banners were hung over the edge of the gallery when the demonstration began. One of these

COMMITTEE TOOK UP WORK THIS MORNING DESPITE WEARINESS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Baltimore, June 28.—With heavy eyes and untimely appearance, many of them breakfastless and all more or less cross, the members of the sub-committee of the convention on resolutions began gathering in their room at convention hall shortly after 10 this morning.

There was much discussion both in the sub-committee and the full committee of minor propositions which previously it had been decided should be omitted. Among these were the question of female suffrage, the use of the initiative, referendum, and recall.

It had been practically decided that these and other features would be left to the discussion of the states, but some of the members thought an expression by the national convention would be helpful and along the lines for which the progressive wing of the party has struggled for the past several years.

These points were left undecided until the last several minutes. The committee has been united absolutely in support of the progressive idea and the members have outvoted with one another in their efforts to have the platform express the very foremost thought of modern democracy.

The strongest and tersest words have been sought in framing every plank in the hope that the party declaration of principles would be so vital and so distinct, with conviction that no one could have any doubt of the purpose of the democratic party to fulfill its pledges and relieve the masses of the people from what are denounced as the abuses by the privileged classes.

There is also an effort to so frame the platform as to appeal to the republican progressives in the hope that many of them may be won over, and indeed on the part of some that Col. Roosevelt may be induced to abandon his further presidential ambitions and join the democrats in bringing about results on which they declare his views are in accord with their own.

The Denver labor plank will be reaffirmed, giving special prominence to the tariff. An effort will be made to demonstrate that the republican party of protection has been responsible in a large degree for the present high cost of living and for the development of trust and monopolies.

There will be a positive declaration for revision downward to the basis of the tariff for revenue only, with special stress upon the word "only." But to meet the demands largely of Sen. Nowlands and at the same time endorse the piecemeal revision of the house of representatives the opinion will be expressed that the reductions should be made gradually and after the most careful deliberation with a view of distorting business to as slight an extent as it is possible to disturb business by tariff revision.

It is hoped to so shape the financial plank as to convince the bankers of the country that there is a possibility of revision for the financial without resorting to the central reserve plan suggested by Sen. Aldrich and the monetary department of which until recently he was the head. Both the sub-committee and the full committee are agreed upon the desirability of criminal prosecutions against the men back of the trusts.

BRYAN SILENT WITH REGARD TO CHOICE FOR THE NOMINATION

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Baltimore, Md., June 28.—William J. Bryan had no word to say today on the first ballot cast for the presidential nomination and after the adjournment of the all night session the Nebraskaan hurried to his hotel where he retired for rest.

He indicated that the delegates had already spoken their mind against Underwood and Harmon, but was non-committal as to whether his choice was Clark or Wilson, although he added he had voted for Clark.

Mr. Bryan believes he has achieved a great moral victory in securing the passage of his Morgan-Ryan-Belmont resolution which was hurled into the convention like a bomb shell last night.

Over the breakfast table Mr. Bryan talked freely of the resolution and when asked what the effect would be, said, "You wait for a week. There has never been such an alignment of a political party against an interest. Just see the vote that was cast for the resolution."

"Did not the elimination of the last clause demanding the withdrawal of any delegates representing the Morgan-Ryan-Belmont interests nullify the resolution?"

"No," replied Mr. Bryan with emphasis. "The last clause was merely putting into effect the first clause. When before in any convention have we had such men named?"

"What do you think of Virginia's vote in favor of this resolution? There were 23 1/2 votes for and one half of a vote against it and Thomas F. Ryan was sitting in the delegation."

"This resolution has made the delegates get in line. Those who nominated a reactionary after passing this resolution would never dare go home. The convention has gone on record."

"Mr. Bryan, it has been suggested among delegates that conditions might arise that would cause you to bolt."

"I don't reply to every report that is started about me," answered the Nebraskaan.

Mr. Bryan's friends say the passage of the Morgan-Ryan-Belmont resolution has shown the country this is a progressive convention and progressive must be named.

MUCH SPECULATION AS TO NUMBER OF CAUCUSES TODAY

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Baltimore, Md., June 28.—Speculations during the early hours today centered on the length of the convention and its ability to avert a deadlock in the session beginning at four this afternoon and after that of course on who would be the nominee.

It was expected a number of caucuses would be held, but these could not well begin until afternoon as most of the leaders were in bed after the all-night struggle. Chairman Oille James reiterated the view that there would be no deadlock and that the standard-bearer would be chosen without another all night session. All eyes were centered on New York, Illinois and Indiana with their large aggregate of votes.

The feeling was general that the nominees of the convention is assured of a practically solid South next November and all energies were being bent to add to this conceded southern strength the additional strength of the pivotal northern states, notably New York, Illinois and Indiana, which would combine enough electoral votes from the north and south to secure a victory.

Measures, Murphy, Sullivan and Taggart, the three leaders of these northern states, have been in constant consultation and have been working in harmony as the lines have been formed, and they will go over the situation before the balloting is resumed this afternoon. The New York delegation has an element of about one third of its strength favorable to Wilson, but the predominating element of about 60 votes is for anyone who has reasonable assurance of carrying New York.

CONCERNING THE DISCOVERY OF THE GERM FOR THE PREVENTION OF OLD AGE

By J. R. HAMILTON.

Former Advertising Manager Vannumaker's, Philadelphia.

Monsieur Metchnikoff, head of the Pasteur Institute of France, has just startled the world by stating that he has not only discovered the germ that creates old age, but that he has also discovered the germ that eats the germ that creates old age. He soon expects to have every man add twenty years or more to his youth by injecting this friendly germ.

This is not new in science, for Metchnikoff, in his book on "The Prolongation of Life" stated his premises some years ago.

This fact however is new and interesting: That while this great scientist was poking around in his laboratory, peering into test tubes and calling "Germie, Germie, Germie!" in a wistful voice, some twenty million men over here in America had already found the little piagocytes and handed him most of the burden of their weary years.

Mr. Rockefeller found him on the Putting Green. Col. Bogio also introduced him to Mr. Taft. Roosevelt smashed him around the Tennis Court. John Brown, Bill Smith, Professor Wilson, Farmer Jones and Doctor Watson discovered him in the mountains, by the trout streams, on the golf links, under the automobile and in fact all over this energetic country of exercise and fresh air.

In short, the men who discovered the "Great-Out-Of-Doors" discovered the germ of youth.

Now commerce may follow the flag, but it also follows the whim of the people, and in this paper today on almost every page you will find the advertising of the merchandise for "Out-Of-Doors."

Hidden somewhere in every ad is this little germ of youth. Your clothing stores with their outing suits are telling you to be young. Your shoe stores with their tramping boots are trying to keep the natural color in your cheeks. Every bathing suit ad is a plea for health, while every outing store is offering you ten years more of life. The glory of America is that America is still young.

Go get yourself a new straw hat, some fuzzy shirts, some outing truck and some new elgthes. Look young and you'll feel young. We'll gladly drink "buttermilk with Metchnikoff if he will come play with us.

Here is your paper. Everything that you need is advertised in it today. Turn to that advertising now. Make your choices according to your heart, your eye and your pocketbook and spend this weekend gathering a few more American germs of eternal youth. (Copyrighted.)

Among the most conspicuous of the vice presidential possibilities at this time are Gov. Burke of North Dakota, who was in presidential contest last night when he withdrew his own name by telegraph to the convention. Representative William Sulzer of New York, chairman of the house committee on foreign affairs; Mayor Newton Baker of Cleveland; Senator O'Gorman of New York; Representative William Roddfield of New York; Mayor James Preston of Baltimore, one of the leading hosts of the convention; Representative Robert L. Henry of Texas; cham-

Kentucky did likewise. Louisiana gave the first split vote with Clark 11 and Wilson 9. Maine gave 9 to Wilson and two to Underwood, 1 to Clark. Maryland's 16 votes went solidly to Clark and so did the 26 from Massachusetts. Michigan's vote was divided among four candidates. Clark got 12, Wilson 10, Harmon 7 and Marshall 1. Minnesota's vote went for Wilson. Mississippi for Underwood, Missouri and Montana for Clark. Nebraska, home of Bryan, gave 12 to Clark and four to Harmon. wood of Alabama received 117 1/2 votes. William Jennings Bryan of Nebraska got one vote from Ohio's delegations. Some of his friends expected that he would receive more scattering votes but the fact that he did not show any strength whatever on the first ballot did not discourage them any.

They still thought that in the event of a deadlock—which early today seemed more than probable—Mr. Bryan might again lead his party in the presidential race.

Speaker Clark's vote was less than his managers had claimed for him but was about what the other candidates had conceded. The speaker's adherents were declaring today that he would gain as the balloting in the convention progressed and at the same time were busy with the delegates to see that there were no defections.

The Wilson forces on the other hand claimed that now that the various restricted delegates had cast the vote on the first ballot in accordance with their instruction they would be free later on to shift to the second choice and they hoped to gain in these changes. It has been known for weeks that because of the number of "Favor to sons" in the fight for the nomination that the selection on the first ballot was out of the question. The ballot this morning bore out these expectations.

Every one was anxious to know how matters stood and the roll call gave some idea of the presidential lineup. The "doubtful quantity" indicated that the vote of New York at a caucus last night decided to give its 30 votes to Judson Harmon on the first ballot.

Baltimore, June 28, 2:30 a. m.—At an early hour this morning the democratic national convention was in session, endeavoring to reach a first ballot in the fight to nominate a presidential candidate. After six hours of oratory and noisy speeches and demonstrations were expected.

Quiet was restored at 1:30 and the meeting of the platform committee at 11 o'clock tomorrow was announced. J. T. Robinson, governor-elect of Kansas then took the platform to second the nomination of Clark.

Robinson talked just five minutes. California seconded the nomination of Clark. Colorado was passed. Then came Connecticut and Henry Wadsworth Rogers of New Haven took the platform to nominate Gov. Shinn J. Baldwin of Connecticut.

WILLIAM BUOB DIED SUDDENLY AT HOME ON SOUTH MAIN ST.

President and Manager of M. Buob Brewing Company Passed Away at Ten Minutes After Six This Morning.

Announcement of the death of William Buob of this city, which occurred shortly after six o'clock this morning, comes as a distinct shock to his many friends in this city. Although he had been in ill health for the past two years, his death was not considered serious until about two weeks ago, and he had been confined to his bed only two days. The end came at ten minutes after six this morning, at his home, 639 South Main street.

Mr. Buob was president and manager of the M. Buob Brewing company of this city, and was well known among the brewers of the state. He was a graduate of the Milwaukee school for brewers and for the past seven years had been in the charge of the M. Buob Brewing company, assuming the management of the company when his father, M. Buob, retired from active business life. For the past year and a half, however, Mr. Buob has been unable to attend to his duties regularly, owing to his illness.

Mr. Buob was born in this city September 18, 1874, and had lived here all his life. On September 1, 1897, he was married to Miss Mary Quirk.

He was a member of Janesville Lodge No. 254, B. P. O. E., and of Janesville Aerie No. 721 of the Fraternal order of Eagles. He was also a member of the Wisconsin Brewers' association. He was a business man of executive ability and the management of the brewery was conducted in a most capable manner. Outside of his business abilities, he was of a genial and affable nature and made many friends. He was a kind and loving husband and father. Surviving him are a wife and two children, Helen, aged twelve; and William, Jr., aged seven; his father, M. Buob, and two sisters, Mrs. Anna Logemann of this city, and Miss Dalia Buob of Chicago. Funeral services will be held from the home, 639 South Main street, Sunday afternoon at half past two o'clock.

Clarence Thurler.
Clarence, the five day old infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thurler, residing at 517 North Main street, died last evening. Funeral services were conducted at the home at 3 o'clock this afternoon by the Rev. C. J. Knorr. Burial was made in Oak Hill cemetery.

Mrs. D. C. Burdick.
Mrs. Henrietta Burdick, widow of the late D. C. Burdick, passed away at 11:30 o'clock at her home, 225 South Franklin street, this morning at the age of 77 years, death being caused by dropsy and heart failure. She had been ill and "falling" all winter and her condition took a rapid change for the worse last Friday. Mrs. Burdick, whose maiden name was Henrietta Doty, was born in Allegany county, New York, and was married there to Mr. D. C. Burdick. They came to Wisconsin and settled at Milton about thirty years ago, later coming to Janesville, who was engaged in the furniture business here, died about five years ago. She leaves two children, Mrs. Ella G. Stearns and Clarence Burdick, both of New York city; one brother, Elias S. Doty of Ambury, Minn., and a sister, Mrs. B. G. Bond of Milton Junction. Funeral announcement will be made later.

Mrs. Thor Judd.
Mrs. Baker Woodruff received the news today of the death of Mrs. Thor Judd, of Brooklyn, N. Y., widow of the late D. Thor Judd of this city. She leaves to mourn her loss, one son, Frederick H. Judd of Brooklyn, N. Y. During her long residence in Janesville, Mrs. Judd made many friends, who will regret to hear of her demise.

Best for Actor to Fit Play.
Eugene Walter, playwright, said: "It is bad art to write a play around an actor. Write the best play you can, regardless of this actor and that. The other method suggests Glimeta. Glimeta—a great bore—was a playwright. He said to a friend one day, excitedly: 'Congratulations! I've got an order for another melodrama from Showman.' 'Did Showman supply the plot?' the friend asked. 'Walter' said Glimeta, 'he showed me all the scenery he had.'"

Rabbit Fur for Felt Hats.
Rabbit fur has supplanted wool in felt-hat making in Sydney, Australia, where 32 factories are in operation. The fur is considerably superior to the finest merino for this purpose, and millions of rabbit skins are used annually. It takes the fur of about six average skins to make a fur-felt hat. In one factory the consumption of skins ranges from 25,000 to 30,000 per week.

SPORT SNAP SHOTS by DAN McCARTY

The first weight event in the Olympic games at Stockholm will be won by Sweden. It is the javelin throw, and the Swedes have a fellow named Ljung who could throw a javelin over the moon, if necessary.

The carnival will open on July 4 with the javelin throw and several other important events. The marathon race comes on July 14.

Edmund Lamy, of Saratoga Lake, N. Y., ex-minister, standing champion of the world and holder of several professional titles, a member of Mansfield, O., baseball team in Ohio State League, fell off a bicycle recently and broke his collar bone.

Lamy's clumsy work in the outfield helped put Mansfield in first place, and as he will not be able to play again this season his loss is a serious blow to the club's permanent chances.

Manager Wolverton, of the New York Yankees has placed up a promising young infielder from a western college, named Lloyd. He will be turned out to a minor league for additional experience.

CORNELL FAVORITE IN SATURDAY RACE

Itlicans Picked by Many Experts to Win Big Intercollegiate Boat Race at Poughkeepsie.

Former winners of intercollegiate regatta.
1895, Columbia; 1896, Cornell; 1897, Cornell; 1898, Pennsylvania; 1899 and 1900, Pennsylvania; 1901, 1902 and 1903, Cornell; 1904, Syracuse; 1905, 1906 and 1907, Cornell; 1908, Syracuse; 1909, 1910 and 1911, Cornell.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 28.—With the expectation of witnessing the greatest aquatic event of the year, thousands of enthusiastic followers of the sport came pouring in to Poughkeepsie today to attend the intercollegiate regatta of the Intercollegiate Rowing Association, which is to be held tomorrow on the Hudson river course. The day's program will consist of three contests, the variety four-oared race, at two miles; the freshman eight-oared, at two miles; and the variety eight-oared race, at four miles.

In the big event of the day—the race of the variety eight-oared—six crews will participate. The are Cornell, Syracuse, Pennsylvania, Columbia, Wisconsin and a newcomer on the Hudson, Lehigh of Calif. With weeks of grueling practice at an end, the six crews are awaiting the start of the big race in confidence.

Although open pool sailing is not permitted, there is keen interest among the backers of the various crews and many individual wagers are being placed. Cornell rules the favorite in the betting, although many backers are to be found for several of the other crews.

Wisconsin's crew this year is believed to be the best that has ever been sent to Poughkeepsie from Madison, and followers of the eight expect to see it figure prominently in the race. In view of the strong showing made by Columbia last year and the good work of the men this year, there is a feeling that the crew from Morris inside Heights has an unusually strong chance of winning. Syracuse again has an ambitious collection of oarsmen, but a win for either, Syracuse or Pennsylvania in the six race would prove a surprise to the critics. Stanford has never before taken part in a four-mile contest and is not expected to figure prominently in tomorrow's race.

Charles A. Courner, the veteran coach of Cornell, says his men are trained to the top notch of condition. He makes no prediction about the result, but his optimism has served to strengthen the general expectation that the Itlicans will be in front at the finish.

It has become a habit of the Cornell crews to sweep the river at intercollegiate regattas. During the past twelve years Cornell has won the variety eight-oared nine times. The Itlicans also hold the record for the course, the crew of 1901 establishing a mark of 18 minutes 53.13 seconds. Pennsylvania won in 1900, but has not won since. In 1901 Syracuse won the race and also in 1908. In the other years since 1900 Coach Courner's crews have led the other schools home. Last year Columbia was in the lead until near the finish, when one of her oarsmen collapsed and Cornell shot ahead, winning by a slight margin. In one of the closest and most exciting struggles ever waged between college oarsmen.

ALL READY FOR RACE AT FORT ERIE TOMORROW.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 28.—Everything is in readiness at the Fort Erie track for the opening there tomorrow for the first of the two summer meetings to be conducted by the Niagara Racing Association. The stables are well filled with fast horses and the officials predict one of the best meetings in the history of the association. Four big state events will be run during the seven days' meeting. The most notable of the fixtures is the Canadian Derby, value $2,500, for three year-olds, 1 1/4 miles.

BIG FIGHTERS PUTTING ON FINISHING TOUCHES.

Las Vegas, New Mexico, June 28.—Activity in the training camps of Jack Johnson and Jim Flynn today continued with plans to put the finishing touches on the principals in the ring battle for the world's heavyweight championship July 4th. Johnson is being groomed to enter the ring at 212 pounds and the Pueblo Freeman is hovering around the 194 mark. Flynn today resumed his routine of gymnasium and road work with a stiff boxing program scheduled for the afternoon. The Johnson camp promised to be a meet for fight fans today and Saturday Johnson having announced he would give $200 to any aspiring heavyweight who would survive a two-round bout with him.

Fights Scheduled for Tonight.
Bombardier Wells vs. Al Patzer, 10 rounds, at New York city.
Frankie Burns vs. "Red" Watson, 20 rounds, at San Francisco.
Phil Kearney vs. Eddie Johnson, 15 rounds, at Antonio, Colo.

Length of Life of Fishes.
The salmon is said to live about ten years, but, like pike and carp, sometimes reach 150 years.

ADDITIONAL APPOINTMENTS FOR SONS OF VETERANS.

New Camps of the Orders in Wisconsin to be Formed in Janesville, Superior and Fond du Lac.

Madison, Wis., June 28.—H. S. Sigalko of this city, who was elected commander of the Wisconsin division of the Sons of Veterans at the recent Antigo encampment, announced the following staff appointments today: Chaplain, Rev. Ernest C. Henke, Baraboo; patriotic instructor, Vesta Wrenberg, Madison; counselor, George H. Parkhill, Thorp; organizer, J. W. T. Ames, River Falls; assistant organizer, L. W. IF IT IS GOOD HARDWARE McNAMARA HAS IT.

Stuffy McInnis.

Stuffy McInnis, of the Athletics, is the premier first baseman of the American league to date. He is outperforming all the first basemen, Larry Ladage included, and his batting is almost flawless. A number of eminent baseball men, including George M. Hill, who said Joe Jackson wouldn't hit 250 last season, predicted that McInnis wouldn't hit Harry Davis' shoes as the Athletic first baseman. But Stuffy's batting average is around .400, and as to outs, assists and errors his average is very close to 100.

LOANI BAND ENJOYS PICNIC LAST NIGHT

Annual Outing of Congregational Church Enjoyed at Home of Mrs. F. S. Baines.

Members of the Loani band of the Congregational church enjoyed their annual outing at the home of Mrs. F. S. Baines, 432 North Jackson street, last evening. The members of the Loani's Missionary society were also invited to join the Loani band at the picnic which was served on the lawn of the Baines' home at six thirty.

A special program followed the supper hour to which members of the congregation were invited as it took the place of the regular prayer meeting. Miss Fiske, field secretary of the W. M. L., who had lately returned from Turkey, where she saw service in the mission field, gave the address of the evening. She spoke of her experiences in the east and her remarks were an inspiration to all. Her affair was one of the most delightful ever given by the society.

TODAY'S EVANSVILLE NEWS

Evansville, June 28.—Miss Anna Stevens who is studying music in Madison, was calling on old friends and relatives in Evansville the first of the week. She left for Chicago Wednesday and after a few days will go from there to Pomona, California, to spend her vacation with her mother, Mrs. David Stevens, and sister Beulah Stevens.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shaw and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Campbell drove over to the reunion at Cooksville yesterday.

The program of the Old Settlers' picnic was mostly of an impromptu nature and was very good. W. W. Gillies presided. There was a very large attendance and a very pleasant time is reported.

The tilling of the Altman farm will be completed at an early date.

Daryl Patterson, Stanley Perry, Misses Elene Jaffard, Fern Cleveland, Edith Hyne attended the annual convention of the Baptist Association of Rock Co. held at Clinton as delegates from the First Baptist church. Jas. Gillies and daughter, Mrs. Vio A. Campbell, Mrs. Van Vleet, W. W. Gillies, Mr. and Mrs. Shepard, Mr. and Mrs. Porter attended the old settlers' reunion at Cooksville Thursday. Charlie Thomas is going to do some tilling on his marsh land in the near future.

Nate Potter of Sun Prairie was a visitor at his father's home Tuesday. Everett Van Patton accompanied by his wife and Mrs. Mary Morgan and Mrs. Kemp drove over to Cooksville in his automobile Thursday to attend the old settlers' reunion. A. H. Booth was with a party of eight gentlemen who were in Evansville Thursday. These men were interested in the Fourth of July celebration arrangements. Most of the Evansville people will celebrate the fourth at some of the neighboring cities.

Mrs. Kate Hanover who returned from St. Louis Tuesday night has not been at her place in the millinery store since her return, on account of her father's illness.

Mable Ames of Brooklyn was in town Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Ellis of Oregon were visitors at E. H. Morrison's Wednesday.

Mrs. May Kemp of Madison is a guest of her sister Mrs. Everett Van Patton.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Spencer attended the old settlers' picnic at Cooksville Thursday.

Mrs. John Flynn of Janesville made a short call on her sister Mrs. Meggott of the Commercial House, and took her niece Eunice Meggott home with her for a long visit.

Mrs. John Crute is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Morrison.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Grayner were called on by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph West Wednesday.

Miss Leonora Huebner is camping at Lake Court Bay about twenty miles from Rogers, Wis., with friends from Lake Rock.

Mr. Fairman of Monroe who is doing tilling for several farmers near Evansville began a job on Ed. Hyne's marsh Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Combs accompanied by Miss Wanda Wilder returned from Madison Thursday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilder. Miss Wilder remained for the rest of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rowley, Chas. Benson, and family, George Sayes and family, are spending the week at Lake Kegonsa.

Mortell Hyne has returned after a two weeks' stay at Attica.

Earl Hope who has been working for the past three weeks, with the three has returned to his home.

Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Short of Oregon were guests of Miss Katie Noyes, Wednesday.

Miss Lizette Gillies returned Wednesday evening from a week's visit with Miss Shummons at her home in Milton. Miss Gillies attended the commencement exercises while at Milton.

Homer Potter is ill and under the doctor's care.

At a meeting of the Rock County Chautauque association, the election of officers was held and the various committees appointed to do the work and all are busy with the necessary preparations.

HOUSEHOLD ECONOMICS CLUB HAS PICNIC AT FOOTVILLE

Address Given By Miss Marlett Of The University of Wisconsin

—New Members Taken In.

Perfect weather and a large attendance helped to make the picnic of the Summer Club at Footville a success. After an elaborate dinner served by the Footville ladies in the Christian church about 150 ladies gathered on the shady lawn of the hostess, Mrs. Lowry, to listen to the program of the afternoon. After a delightful vocal solo and the regular business of the meeting the ladies had the pleasure of listening to an address by Miss Marlett of Madison.

The lady is a teacher in the branch of Household Economics at the State University. She is thoroughly familiar with the subject and being familiar with both the scientific and practical sides of her subject was a forceful as well as a charming speaker. After the talk came the response to the roll call by household suggestions. Then eleven new members were taken into the club and the meeting closed with the singing of America by those present. The only suggestion of war to the proceedings was the fact that those gathering by train had to leave at three o'clock and were unable to stay through the meeting.

The next meeting will be held at Milton and will be a basket picnic, all contributing to the dinner.

Good Bookkeeping.

Sir Walter Scott, in lending a book one day to a friend, cautioned him to be punctual in returning it. "This is really necessary," said the poet in apology, "for though many of my friends are bad arithmeticians, I observe almost all of them to be good bookkeepers."

AVALON

Avalon, June 28.—Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dodge, Vera and Leon Dodge went to Milwaukee Saturday, to visit Ralph Dodge and other relatives.

Edwin Taylor of Whitewater visited relatives and friends in this vicinity last week.

Mrs. Holstein is visiting her son in Port Atkinson.

Mrs. H. Hanson is entertaining her mother and aunt and two daughters of Minnesota.

Miss Davis of Janesville returned home after a week's stay with Mrs. Rokenbrodt.

Mr. and Mrs. John Waugh entertained his cousin, Mr. Schenk of Minneapolis, Minn., over Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Conry received the sad news of the death of her mother in Texas, Monday. Mrs. Conry has the sympathy of her many friends. This is the second death in her family recently, a brother having died about a month ago.

Geosie and Cora Stoney spent a few days this week with Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hahn of Clinton.

Mrs. A. Bennett, who spent the past week with relatives in Oak vicinity, returned to her home in Danvers, Ill., Monday.

Marguerite Duhle visited Katherine and Dorothy Boynton on Tuesday.

George Packard of Whitewater spent two days this week in this vicinity tuning pianos.

Mrs. E. Voltz entertained the C. and L. club last Friday.

Mrs. Belding and daughter, Grace, and Mrs. E. A. Taylor, and daughter, Helen, were guests of Mrs. H. P. Irish last Friday.

Miss Marguerite Conly of Janesville is visiting at the home of her uncle, John Waugh.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Dockhorn is entertaining company from Sharon.

Wm. Yandry is erecting a new house on his farm.

CLINTON

Clinton, June 28.—Katie Holland and wife sold their farm to Otto Storm yesterday through J. P. Kennamer. The 35 acres brought $7,000.

Mrs. J. Elsey of Chicago arrived here last night to remain over the 28th as a guest of the Misses Elizabeth and Anna Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Williams of Milwaukee arrived yesterday morning to visit relatives and friends until after the Fourth.

Arthur Hanson of Avalon was in town yesterday.

Steve Conley of Sharon came up in his motor car yesterday.

Mrs. M. T. Lowell and baby of Janesville are visiting Mrs. Lowell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brand, west of town.

Miss Myrtle Froendahl of Winnebago came last evening to visit her relatives here for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Murry and Mrs. M. M. Murry and Mrs. Stewart motored down to Mauchew yesterday. They report a big crowd and a good time. People were in attendance from the remote parts of this country and England.

John Thomas of near Rockford motored to Clinton Wednesday to visit his brother, Dr. W. O. Thomas and family.

TO HONOR PIONEER

PRIEST OF CANADA

Celebration to be Held of Founding of Grouard on Shores of Lesser Slave Lake in Alberta.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Edmonton, Alta., June 28.—On the shores of the Lesser Slave Lake, lying in the heart of Alberta about 200 miles northwest of this city, a celebration of an unique character is scheduled to be held during the two days beginning tomorrow. The celebration is to be held in observance of the fiftieth anniversary of the settlement of the town of Grouard and in honor of its founder—Bishop Grouard, the famous Catholic priest and missionary who has spent fifty years in the far north country, and who has administered to the material as well as the spiritual needs of the natives and pioneers of that region by building schools and hospitals and doing wonders in the encouragement of agriculture and industry. Several bishops and numerous clergy of the Catholic church in western Canada are to take part in the celebration, which will include historical exercises and the presentation of a pageant depicting incidents in the career of Bishop Grouard and the development of the Lesser Slave Lake country.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Edmonton, Alta., June 28.—Evidence that Senator La Follette is playing a waiting game is furnished in a front page editorial in his weekly magazine issued today, entitled "On Guard." In it he advises all progressives to "hold fast to principle and keep the powder dry." La Follette charges are that Taft and Roosevelt in the recent national convention rent the republican party organization asunder.

"Existing conditions are intolerable," reads the editorial. "The railroads, the trusts, the tariff, the money power, control in government and the burdens upon the people grow heavier every day. These wrongs have ripened into oppression in the last dozen years under the administration of the two men, Roosevelt and Taft, who, fiercely contending for another lease of power, have rent asunder the republican party organization. A crisis is at hand. Passion and prejudice rage about us. It is time for serious thinking and deliberate action. La Follette earnestly appeals to every real progressive to hold fast to principle and keep his powder dry."

Committee of International Conference of Chambers of Commerce Holds Meeting in Brussels.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Brussels, June 28.—The permanent committee of the International Conference of Chambers of Commerce assembled here today to decide upon a list of topics to be discussed at the meeting of the conference to be held in Boston next September. The purpose of the conference is to facilitate the commercial intercourse of nations, and to promote cordial relations among them. The coming session will be the first ever held in the United States. It will give consideration to a number of important questions affecting international commercial relations. The establishment of a permanent international court of arbitration, uniform laws concerning exchange and bank checks, international postal reforms, the regulation of international exhibitions, international co-operation for the utilization of agricultural statistics, and the compilation of a program for international maritime union are among the subjects slated for consideration at the Boston meeting.

UNVEIL IMPOSING MEMORIAL TO JEAN JACQUES ROUSSEAU

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Paris, June 28.—In honor of the memory of Jean Jacques Rousseau, the famous writer and philosopher whose birth occurred two hundred years ago today, an imposing memorial was unveiled this afternoon in the Pantheon. The memorial group, which was designed by M. Bartholome, the French sculptor, represents philosophy seated between two figures, symbolizing Nature. A medallion bears a profile bust relief of Rousseau's head.

SUSPEND REGULATIONS ON DIMENSIONS OF BAGGAGE.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Washington, June 28.—Every common carrier railroad and steamship line in the United States, was affected by the suspension of the Interstate Commerce today of proposed new regulations restricting the dimensions of pieces of personal baggage. The new regulations would further limit the amount of baggage transported free for passengers and increase the charges on excess baggage. They were suspended from July 1 to October 22.

MOORE SAYS CROPS WERE NEVER BETTER

University Professor Declares Grain Crops in Southern Wisconsin Will Be Largest On Record.

Madison, Wis., June 28.—"I have never seen better crops in southern Wisconsin than this year," said Prof. H. A. Moore, University of Wisconsin. Unless all signs fail, he continued, oats, rye, barley and wheat crops will be the largest ever harvested in this section of the state. He said it will take a month's more time than usual next fall to ripen the grain. The corn crop may be up to standard. The tomato crop here for hay and alfalfa is beyond previous expectations.

DEMOCRATS VOTING ON CHOICE FOR PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION

At 2:10 the Wilson enthusiasts had held away for an hour and no attempt had been made to restore order or clear the aisles.

One of the Underwood delegates from Alabama apparently resenting the intrusion of the Wilson marching clubs from outside the hall, addressed the chair with a mesaphone.

"Mr. Chairman," he said, "please notify all these bell boys and waiters that we will need them at the hotel this morning for breakfast."

At 3:15 A. M. the Wilson people passed the record of the Clark brouhaha earlier in the session—one hour and five minutes. The demonstration, however, was diminishing.

At 3:15 A. M. the Wilson demonstration passed the record made by the Clark people earlier in the session. It had been under way an hour and five minutes. At this time the noise began to subside and the sergeant-at-arms started in to clear the aisles, the police assisting.

At 3:20 order had been more or less restored. Then someone brought an electric automobile horn in the hall and pandemonium broke loose again.

At 3:15 A. M. Mr. Wescott began his nominating speech of Gov. Wilson.

By the time Wescott was well into his speech, a tumultuous quiet had settled over the big hall, broken every now and then by the sounds of applause that greeted the speaker's eulogy of Wilson. The galleries, half filled with both men and women, had subsided into sleepy silence.

A few busy boys and men passed about the hall peddling sandwiches and water for a substantial consideration to the delegates and spectators.

The convention floor had taken on the appearance of a circus ground at the night of wild disorder was strewn about the place. The state standard-bearers, broken and battered, leaned drunkenly away above the heads of the delegates.

Sovereign of the delegates sleep fitfully about on breast, awakening with a start as each gust of air swept the hall. A highly colored photograph of Wilson stared down from one of the galleries where it had been hoisted during the Wilson demonstration.

Even the police on post along the aisles leaned heavily upon the seats or shifted uneasily.

It was 4 o'clock when Wescott concluded and his peroration set off another demonstration by the Wilson forces. The sleepy delegates awoke to life and added by the band they raised a din. Once more the standard-bearers were wrenched from the place; the Wilson banners again put in an appearance and the parade around the hall once more was on.

Five minutes of demonstration found the parade piling in a struggling mass of delegates, marchers, chairs and banners at the head of the center aisle. The yelling continued and the band added the uproar.

Up in the gallery the shrieking automobile horn was again turned loose to add to the pandemonium of sounds.

Chairman James, when the demonstration had been fifteen minutes under way decided that it had gone far enough and pounded, his desk ordered the sergeant-at-arms to clear the aisles and then ordered the roll call resumed.

The clerk called Florida and that state was named.

Georgia, next on the list, announced J. R. Anderson to second the nomination of Underwood.

While Anderson hailed Underwood and the South, the black windows at each end of the hall gradually grew gray with the coming dawn.

"The day has at last dawned on true democracy," declared Anderson and the big crowd watching the slowly lighting windows applauded vigorously.

Illinois furnished a few minutes of oratory by Douglas Patterson who seconded the nomination of Champ Clark.

When Indiana was called Senator Shively took the platform to nominate Gov. Marshall. It was then 4:55 a. m.

Senator Shively concluded his speech nominating Gov. Marshall at 5:05 and a Marshall demonstration was begun.

By the time Shively had finished at 5:05 dawn had begun to dim the are lights in the hall. A cheer greeted the conclusion of his speech and the Indiana delegation swung out a big Marshall banner. For the first time a band appeared on the floor of the convention and led the parade through the aisles. The howlers marched to the strains of "On the Banks of the Wabash," and Senator Kern was prominent in the procession marching behind the big Marshall banner.

The Marshall band and the demonstration served to awaken the few spectators left in the galleries for a short time. The demonstration, however, lasted only five minutes.

Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine and Massachusetts were passed.

When Michigan was reached, Judge P. H. O'Brien made a brief speech seconding the nomination of Woodrow Wilson.

As soon as O'Brien left the platform, another Michigan delegate, John E. Kinnane, made a speech seconding Clark's nomination.

Alfred Jacques, on behalf of Minnesota, seconded Wilson's nomination. He exceeded his time and the crowd applauded his conclusion in cheers.

Governor Earl Brower of Mississippi took the platform to second the nomination of Underwood. Brower made a speech bristling with figures of speech. He was frequently interrupted and when his time was up his voice was drowned in a flood of noise.

Missouri yielded to Colorado and Charles P. Tow took the stand to second the nomination of Clark.

At six o'clock this morning the democratic national convention was still listening to nominating and seconding speeches on presidential candidates. Messrs. Underwood, Clark, Wilson, Harmon, Baldwin of Connecticut and Governor Marshall of Indiana having been placed before the convention and only seconding speeches remained to be heard before the first ballot was taken.

The convention had been in session since 8 o'clock last night. The delegates were many of them asleep in their seats, the galleries were all but empty, the policemen were red-eyed and weary, but the flood of oratory went on.

Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, New York and North Carolina sat silent as the states were called.

S. J. Doyle of North Dakota read a letter from Governor John Burke of that state, requesting the delegates instructed for him and asking that his name be not presented to the convention.

The delegation, Doyle said, would cast its vote (10) for the man thought to best represent the progressive democracy. That man was Woodrow Wilson. The announcement called out a cheer from the Wilson followers.

Ohio was called at 5:45 a. m. and M. A. Dougherty stepped to the front of the stage to nominate Gov. Judson Harmon of Ohio. Dougherty concluded his speech at 6:05. The Harmon forces made no attempt at a demonstration.

Senator Gore of Oklahoma seconded the nomination of Woodrow Wilson. Senator Gore woke up the drowsy delegates when he remarked: "During the past three and a half years, President Taft has been busy as a bee carrying out the policies of Theodore Roosevelt—on a stretcher."

The delegates and spectators cheered.

Senator Gore emphasized the republican disaffection and asserted that Wilson would win many republican votes.

The senator said that the time had come for a party to replace the Taft republican conservatism.

"Shall it be the democratic party, or shall it be Roosevelt's third party?" he demanded. "That is the question this convention must answer whether it will or no."

Gore was followed by Representative Ferrie who spoke for the Oklahoma Clark delegates, that state being split, ten Wilson, ten Clark.

When Ferrie had concluded the roll of the states proceeded until Pennsylvania was reached. Then Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer took the platform to second the nomination of Woodrow Wilson.

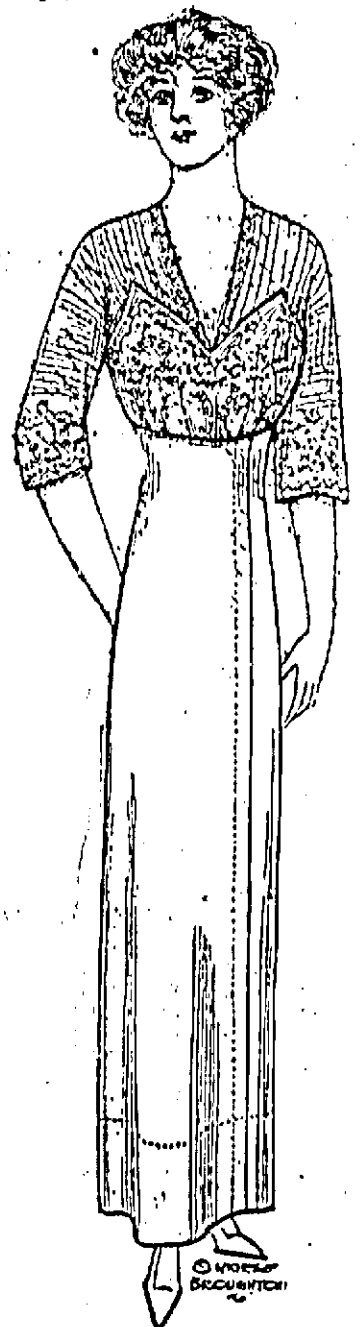

Texas, Utah and Vermont were passed and Virginia sent Congressman Flood, who earlier in the session had had an argument with William Jennings Bryan, to second the nomination of Oscar W. Underwood.

John Walsh of Wisconsin followed Flood. He seconded the nomination of Wilson, but could scarcely be heard above the uproar of delegates.

WHAT WILL THE DEMOCRATS DO? GIVE COUNTRY PROGRESSIVE CANDIDATE AND PLATFORM SAY KERN, LEWIS AND OTHER LEADERS

Senator Kern and Congressman Henry (at the left), J. Hamilton Lewis and Mayor N. D. Baker.

Matter of Perseverance.
Bishop Burgess of Long Island, speaking of his crusade against Sunday flying, said: "I am against the formation of bad habits, whether they be habits of laziness, or selfishness, or of Sunday flying. 'Be sure, we are told, 'he sure your sin will find you out.' That is true, but it is also true that, when your sin pays you a second, third and fourth call, it generally finds you in."

Got Away With Many Nickels.
With his pockets stuffed with nickels, a man was arrested in Mount Vernon, N. Y., a few days ago, charged with vagrancy. Puzzled at the jangling sounds issuing from his garments, the police searched his clothes, finding, to their amazement, that 500 nickels were stowed about his person. The prisoner then confessed that he had trapped a nickel-in-the-slot machine and made away with $40.

REBELLION TO END; REBEL LEADER DEAD

Commander of Federal Troops in Cuba Says Death of Estanoso Yesterday Means Peace.

Santiago, Cuba, June 28.—General Evaristo Estanoso, the rebel leader, was killed yesterday at Vega Bolcana, six miles from Miera in the vicinity of Songo by government troops under command of Lieutenant de la Torre after a battle in which 100 insurgents were killed. The dead include probably also General Pedro and Ivenot, whose body, however has not been found.

Ends the Rebellion.

Havana, Cuba, June 28.—General Montenegro, commander in chief of the government forces telegraphed today that the death of General Estanoso, the rebel leader, puts an end to the rebellion. General Montenegro expressed confidence he will have the whole province of Oriente pacified within two days.

At the rebel front, Bachima, Mex., June 28.—Rebel chiefs here are mystified at the disappearance of the federals from the railroad directly in front of Bachima. Almost as far south as the big Ortiz bridge, fifteen miles away, scouts report no federal in sight. The theory most commonly believed is that Gen. Huerta has moved his army by a circuitous route away from the railroad in an effort to flank the mountain pass.

Federal Movement.

Aguaprieta, Sonora, June 28.—The federal campaign on Juarez began today with the departure from here of 800 men under General Blanco, who moved toward Colonia Morelos, a small town on the border between the states of Sonora and Chihuahua, where they will form a junction with the main column there under Col. LINGERIE FROCK FOR WEAR IN JULY

Here is a pretty lingerie frock of embroidered flouncing. The skirt is composed of three flounces mounted on a good foundation. The long shoulder straps are adorned with small cords at the top of the short sleeves. The bustfold outlining the neck and the girdle are of black satin.

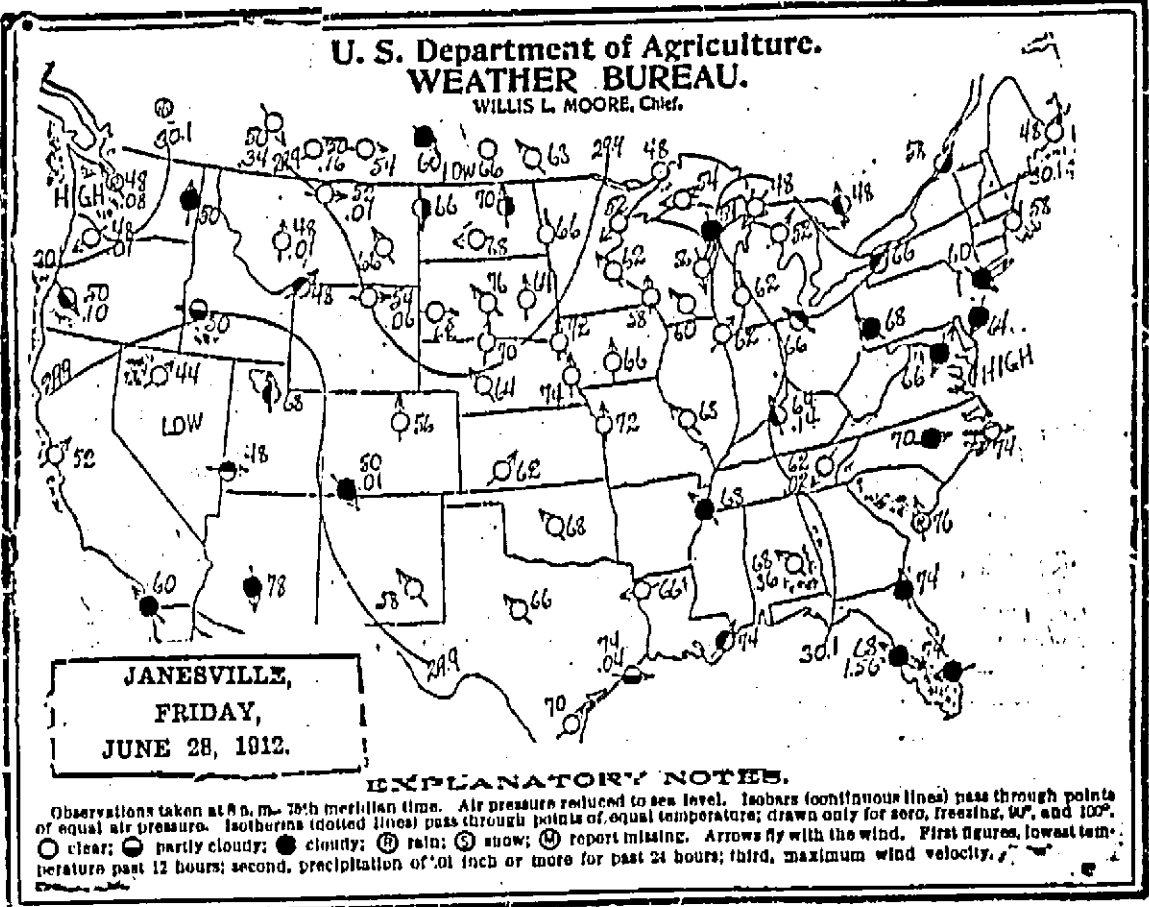

DAINTY GOWN OF BLUE CHAMPA

Here is a dainty gown of old blue chambray. The three tier skirt has a ruffle of the same and in the middle front. The bodice is mounted in tucks on the shoulders and has short sleeves set in large armholes. The short draped coat effect is of matching chambray cloth. The tiny bows and girdle are of darker blue tulle silk.

Breeding Shows for itself. College may teach you form—contact may bring some things away; but breeding, like a complexion, is more than a surface. Unless it's real, it only makes one wonder what's really underneath. When it is assumed, it's bound to wear off from time to time.—Herbert Kaufman.

Gossip. Gossip is a sort of smoke that comes from the dirty tobacco pipes of those who diffuse it; it proves nothing but the bad taste of the smoker.—George Elliot.

JEHOVAH'S CONQUEST BY LOVE'S POWER.

Time Approaching When Force
Will Be Applied.

Election of the Special Class With a View to the Blessing of the Non-
Elect, Who Have Eyes but Hear Not,
Eyes but See Not.

Cleveland, O., June 23.—Pastor Russell had his usual large audience today. He gave two addresses. We report the one on the lost, "To prevent you holy and unblemished and unrepentant in his sight."—Colossians 1:22.

Whatever our creeds have said to the effect that anyone declining the drawing and invitation of this Gospel Age would suffer eternal torture, we are glad that the Bible says nothing of this kind. God's Word holds out a specially glorious reward for those who now renounce the world and become true, faithful, footstep followers of Jesus.

But nowhere do the Scriptures declare the unreasonable proposition that anyone declining this offer of joint-heirship with Jesus in His Kingdom and its terms in the narrow way must on account of this rejection suffer eternal torture. How unjust would such a proposition be—how ungodlike! How did we ever so seriously blunder?

The Transforming Work.

Note the class the Apostle mentions as undergoing the transforming influence, preparing them for a share in the Kingdom glory. He declares in the context that those to whom he wrote were once alienated from God, enemies in mind by wicked works, yet now reconciled. Ah, as every Christian knows, there is a wonderful, transforming influence in the message of the love and grace of God. And it is this that St. Paul here declares.

Jesus first of all through His death as a satisfaction of Justice made possible the acceptance of the alienated, condemned ones. Next the message of Divine Grace, the call to be sons of God, reached the hearts of many and captured them. The message not only works in their hearts to will, but works powerfully also in their bodies to do, to the extent of ability, the will of God. And it is this that the Apostle declares the Redeemer will present before the Father holy, unblemished.

The transforming work now progresses in their minds, in their hearts, and all the faithful will share in the first or chief resurrection—"changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye," to perfection on the spirit plane. "We shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is." But the Apostle reminds us in the succeeding verse that all this glorious outcome is dependent—it all hangs upon the word if—if we continue in the faith; if we are grounded and settled, and if we be not moved away from the hope which we have received.

The Apostle reminds us that this is not a special, private message, but the very identical one message, the one Gospel, the one "faith once delivered to the saints"—and proclaimed for every creature which is under heaven. By this he did not mean to say that the Gospel had been preached in heathen lands. Indeed, although more than eighteen centuries have passed, the Gospel is not yet preached to every creature under heaven. What St. Paul did mean is that the Gospel, which originally was confined to the Jew, was from the days of Cornelius, the first Gentile convert, open to all people of every nationality under heaven—to all who had the hearing ear and appreciative heart. But, alas, how comparatively few are in such attitude of mind as to be appreciative of God's grace! Only the few, "a little flock," have been found, as God foreknew and as Jesus foretold.

The Future Program Different.

But God is interested in our entire race. He did not provide the redemption merely for the saintly ones whom He specially loves and is now drawing. On the contrary, "Jesus Christ, by the grace of God, tasted death for every man." (Hebrews 2:9.) Hence it does not surprise us that God's Plan, which begins with the calling of the saintly few, by no means ends with them. Indeed their calling and election is with a view to the blessing eventually of the non-elect, the unwilling, who now have ears but hear not, and eyes but see not.

These, the Bible tells us, are soon to be dealt with in a different manner. Force is to be used. The power of the Messianic Kingdom will bind Satan for a thousand years and will restrain evil. Divine Power will also let loose all the glorious agencies of Truth, righteousness, light, until the whole earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of God as the waters cover the great deep; and until "none shall need to say to his neighbor, Know thou the Lord, because all shall know Him, from the least of them to the greatest." "In that day the righteous shall flourish." Instead of the wicked, in that day evil does will suffer stripes—and, if they do not repent, they will be cut off in the Second Death; whereas all the righteous shall increase their joys and be received into life eternal.

It's So Easy.

Discretion is a thing that most men are able to use as long as they are free from temptation.—Chicago Record-Herald.

REVIEW.

Golden Text—I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill. Matt. v:17.

The following questions may be used as an original lesson or as a review of the twelve preceding lessons.

The date and title of each lesson, where found, Golden Text and one question from each lesson follow.

April 7. The Appearance of the Risen Lord. 1 Cor. xv:1-11. Golden Text—This Jesus hath God raised up whereof we are all witnesses. Acts 1:32.

(1.) Verse 7—What proof did Jesus give at his various appearances after his resurrection that it was really himself they saw?

April 14. The Use of the Sabbath. Mark 1:23; 11:20. Golden Text—The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath. Mark 2:27.

(2.) Verses 23-24—What is the origin of the Sabbath day, and what was its original purpose?

April 21. The Appointment of the Twelve. Matt. 10:1-42. Golden Text—Ye did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you, that you go and bear fruit. John xv:16.

(3.) Verses 14-15—Jesus had a large following at this time. What method therefore did he adopt in selecting his twelve apostles?

April 28. The Beatitudes. Matt. v:1-12. Golden Text—Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. Matt. v:8.

(4.) Verse 4—What is it to be blessed? (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

May 5. Poverty and Riches. Luke x:20-26; x:11-13. Golden Text—A man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. Luke x:34.

(5.) Verse 20—Wherein consists the blessedness of poverty as Jesus here means?

May 12. The Law of Love. Luke x:27-28; Rom. xli:8-10. Golden Text—Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. Rom. xli:9.

(6.) Verses 27-28—What benefit is it to us, to the cause of God or to our enemies if we love them?

May 19. The Old Law and the New Life. Matt. v:17-20. Golden Text—He that loveth his neighbor hath fulfilled the law. Rom. xli:8.

(7.) Verses 17-18—In what sense did Jesus mean that the law was not to be destroyed "till all be fulfilled?"

May 26. Truthfulness. Matt. v:33-37; Jas. 1:11-12; v:12. Golden Text—Putting away falsehood, speak ye truth each man with his neighbor, for we are members one of another. Eph. 1:23.

(8.) Jas. 1:12—Is an untruth ever justifiable? Give your reasons.

June 2. Hypocrisy and Sincerity. Matt. vi:1-18. Golden Text—Take heed that ye do not your righteousness before men, to be seen of them, else ye have no reward with your Father who is in heaven. Matt. vi:1.

(9.) Verses 1-4—Is it or not, and why, always wrong to let people know the fact and the amount of our givings to benevolence?

June 9. Hearing and Doing. Luke vi:34-40. Golden Text—Ye who doers of the word and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. Jas. 1:22.

(10.) Why is it or not possible for an unconverted man to be the means of the conversion of a sinner?

June 16. Christ's Witness to John the Baptist. Matt. xli:2-10. Golden Text—Among them that are born of woman there is none greater than John, yet he that is but little in the kingdom of God is greater than he. Luke vi:24.

(11.) Verse 3—What do you think had produced doubt in the mind of John concerning the Messiahship of Christ?

June 23. The Penitent Woman. Luke xli:30-35. Golden Text—Faithful is the saying and worthy of all acceptance that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. 1 Tim. 1:15.

(12.) Verse 30—What, if any, reason is there to suppose that if a virtuous woman had been converted by Jesus she would have publicly manifested her love in a similar way?

Lesson for Sunday, July 7, 1912. Malignant Unbelief. Mark 16:20-25.

Wrong Idea About Whales.

Since the time of Aristotle people have assumed that whales blow water through their noses, not, as is actually the case, condensed breath. That this view was wrong is proved by the fact alone that the throat of the whale, which is the only way that the water can enter, is not connected with the air passages.

Sleep in Church, but Don't Snore.

An English preacher has invented a cure for snoring in church. It's a little mental contrivance that the disturber of a parson's peace of mind places in a position on his lips and nostrils, and the Rev. A. Allen Barrett, vicar of Claygate, England, who evolved the idea, says any sleeping churchgoer thus decorated can't let loose a single snore to disturb other worshippers in their bulky anorak every Sunday morning till it's time to get up for the pew for dinner.—New York Press.

Youthful Grandmother.

Probably the youngest grandmother in the world is Mdmo. Kuni Medzunkami, the wife of a farmer in the province of Izu, Japan. The woman, who is now 28 years old, was married when she was 13. She has a daughter fifteen years old who was married a year ago and has given birth to a son. Mdmo. Medzunkami's grandmother is still alive at the age of 92.

UNCLE SAM INTRODUCES TESTIMONY OF SENSATIONAL CHARACTER IN SUIT TO DISSOLVE THE UNITED STATES STEEL CORPORATION

From left to right: B. A. Reed, Henry B. Colton, Henry P. Brown, Jacob Dickinson, R. V. Lindabury. In an effort to dissolve the United States Steel Corporation, Uncle Sam is introducing some sensational testimony. Not the least interesting is the evidence that many of the Trust's records have been destroyed since the suit was started. Jacob M. Dickinson, ex-Secretary of War, is appearing for the government, assisted by Henry B. Colton. Henry P. Brown is the special master appointed by the United States Circuit Court to take testimony in the suit. Mr. R. V. Lindabury is chief counsel for the Steel Corporation.

Patents to Inventors.

Marshall & Caldwell, successors to Benedict, Storsell & Caldwell, solicitors of patents, Majestic building, Milwaukee, and Robinson building, Racine, report patents issued to Wisconsin inventors on June 25, 1912, as follows: John L. Barker Racine, starting mechanism for internal combustion engines; Edward Buchman, Milwaukee, fountain brush; Herbert W. Cheney, Milwaukee, fountain brush; circuit breaker, controller, motor control system; David L. Davis, Eau Claire, aeroplane; Alexander A. Gray, Milwaukee, dynamo-electric machine; John C. Larson, Modford, metal fence post; Alexander J. LeGault, West Allis, switch; Emil Mattmann, Milwaukee Turbo construction; Harry G. Miller, Milwaukee, sewing and trimming machine with router and jig-saw attachment; Peter Nels, Calvary, aerial carrier; Halfdan A. Steen, Milwaukee (2), motor control system, liquid rheostat; Giles M. Turner, Madison, means for supporting and driving electric generators; Nathan Wilkinson, Milwaukee, their notable time element device; Robert R. Williamson, Milwaukee, dynamo electric machine.

Hot Age.

A woman in Ohio was refused a license to marry because she gave her age as 20 when in reality she was 60. Now, according to proverbial philosophy, a woman is as old as she feels, and if this woman felt like 30 after twelve marrying and becoming a grandmother, she should have been encouraged for the sake of public policy in her persistent grasp on juvenility.

Will Not Use Word "Pauper."

The Norwich (England) board of guardians recently unanimously decided that in future the word "pauper" shall not be used in any of the board's records or minutes. Mr. Millington, a farmer, brought the matter forward. Many respectable persons, he said, required relief through no fault of their own, and the word was objectionable and cast undesired stigma upon recipients of relief and their children. He suggested that the word "poor" should be substituted.

Much Like Wasted Time.

If a boy is too lazy to work at it, it won't help him much to learn a trade. —Atchison Globe.

Noted Men Fond of Cats.

The cat has always been a pet in various countries of the world, and notable men have not been ashamed to admit their affection for poor pussy. Cardinal Richelieu delighted to watch kittens playing, and every three months had a fresh supply brought to replace those kittens who were growing into cathood. Chateaubriand was also a cat lover, and the pope of the day gave him a lovely tortoiseshell cat called Missetto, says Home Notes.

Heathen Delties for Sale.

There is an old curiously shop in London which makes a specialty of heathen delties. All kinds of images, small and large, handsome, hideous and grotesque are on view. You can choose an antique Aztec god from Mexico, carved in heavy stone and hideous enough to scare a burglar; you can purchase a marble dely from Mandalay, a wooden atrocity from the Ju-Ju land of West Africa, or a gilt loss from a Chinese temple.

Potatoes a Staple Diet.

Of every one hundred pounds of food we eat, fourteen pounds consist of potatoes.

No Freedom for Him.

It was his first visit to this country, and he was anxious to see as much of it as possible in a short time. In a brief visit to the south he met an aged negro who had been a slave. "How interesting," he remarked. "And after the war you had your freedom?" The old man looked at him half sadly, half sheepishly, shook his woolly head and said: "No, ah. Ah didn't git no freedom—Ah dono was married."

Putting Away Trousers.

In folding trousers for travelling or packing purposes, put the waist buttons together and pull the trousers down quite flat, with the outer seams about an inch in front of the inner; fold them over into half their length, and then put them into whatever receptacle awaits them.

Again the G. P.

"My greatest profanity provocation," writes J. S. L., "is to be taken to a church entertainment by my wife and have to remain calm while a gawky, six-footed thing which calls itself a tenor and has a face like a carp, warbles, 'I Wish I Were a Rose.'"

How to be Certain of Curing Constipation

Prejudice is a hard thing to overcome, but where health is at stake and the opinion of thousands of reliable people differs from yours, prejudice then becomes your menace and you ought to lay it aside. This is said in the interest of people suffering from chronic constipation, and it is worthy of their attention.

In the opinion of leaders of reliable American people the most stubborn constipation imaginable can be cured by a brief use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. You may not have heard of it before, but do not doubt its merits on that account, or because it has not been blantly advertised. It has sold very successfully on word of mouth recommendation. Parents are giving it to their children today who were simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

REHBERG'S

HERE'S a sale that has received splendid recognition --one that upsets every notion you may have of just how cheaply fine suits can be bought. The price is $17.50 and by stating the values moderately and modestly, we tell you they're worth $25--we'd be really justified in saying they are worth more.

We can't possibly over-emphasize their fineness—every little characteristic of hand tailoring is theirs—hand felted edges, collars, etc. They're typical custom productions in every smart 2 and 3 button model. It's a sale for men and young men, wearers of every size. We want you to examine these suits with a critical eye—you'll appreciate their character more if you do. Over a hundred of these $25 suits for you to choose from at $17.50.

Here's a case of "special privilege"—a special item just for the young men and older men who dress young. Some very fine hand finished fancy grays, blue grays and blues, the smart cuts of the season, many English roll effects, suits that give a man all the ease and dash and "go" he likes, $21.50 and $25.00.

SUMMER FURNISHINGS

Very best treat we've spread for you in many day—our furnishings department is the mecca of men seeking comfort these days. Soft shirts with collars to match, solid colors, pin and pencil stripes, $1.50. Mercorized soft cuff shirts with soft detachable collars, $1.00. Get ready for your "first dip" of the season, swimming suits, 50¢ upwards.

SUMMER STRAWS

It's the open season for Panamas and Bangkoks; they've never been quite as popular as they are now. They weigh "less than a whisper," you'll hardly realize you have one on; they're as comfortable as your hair—$5.00 upwards. Those who are "standpatters" for sailor and soft straws will find ours the largest and finest showing in Janesville—Millans, Sennits, Splits, Jap and China brands, etc., $1.00 upwards. The very best $2.00 straws in Janesville are here.

SUMMER OXFORDS

Now comes the summer of your discontent if you aren't fitted with proper oxfords. Feet show a tendency to swell and perspire and grow thoroughly painful. We'll eliminate all of that for you—by fitting you correctly and comfortably and scientifically. Lots of fine lasts for men in all leathers $2.50 to $5.50. Values? The very best ones in Janesville are ours at $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00. Women's button oxfords in Tan Russian Calf, Gun Metal or Vici Kid, all sizes, with welt soles, at $2.50 the pair. White 2-strap canvas slippers, all sizes and widths, with white canvas covered heels, at $1.45 the pair.

SIDEWALK SKETCHES.

THE MINISTER.

By Howard L. Hann.

THE minister is a character member of the most underpaid profession in all the annals of history, unless it is that melancholy figure, the printer's devil. The average minister's income seldom gets heated up to over $50 a month, and the first time he says anything in the pulpit that hits some pillar of the church in a vital spot it will jump about $1000.00. The minister is a character member of the most underpaid profession in all the annals of history, unless it is that melancholy figure, the printer's devil. The average minister's income seldom gets heated up to over $50 a month, and the first time he says anything in the pulpit that hits some pillar of the church in a vital spot it will jump about $1000.00.

There is a minister who is not able to live on well water and due bills. It is a very exciting and painful occupation. Everybody is perfectly satisfied with the minister so long as he preaches on something that happened 12,000 years ago, but the minute he begins to let a current of air through anything that is going on in the community he will be requested to put on the soft pedal or seek a more congenial clime. If the minister has all of the high spots in his repertoire the way the ignorant evangelist does, he would be wanted into the next county without a cent of expense. About the most unpopular thing a minister can do is to object to having the collection taken by some earnest brother who hopes from the evening service into the arms of a taker name. There is nothing that will chill the ardor of the average congregation quicker than a few pointed sermons on the round dance and the bridge white habit, and the minister who turns his vocabulary loose on those topics is liable to detect quite a perceptible drop in the temperature. Many a minister is prevented from doing his best work by people who sleep out loud in church and then criticize the sermon. What is needed is a brand of piety which will induce people to contribute as much to the minister's salary as they do to the moving picture show.

Relic of Spanish Inquisition.
The building occupied by the Peruvian senate was once the seat in Lima of the Spanish Inquisition. The chamber in which the council sat possesses a wonderfully beautiful ceiling, carved and presented by Spanish monks 450 years ago. The torture chamber is now a retiring room for the senators.—Peru To-Day.

FREIGHT HANDLERS' STRIKE CALLED OFF

Trouble Which Affected Local Merchants Finally Settled in Chicago Yesterday.

Settlement in the strike of the Chicago freight handlers was finally reached yesterday through the intervention of the Chicago Association of Commerce. The strike which has been in progress since May 4th, was seriously felt for a time in this city as well as throughout the west. A number of Janesville men, employed by both the Northwestern and St. Paul roads, were in Chicago for some time to assist in breaking the strike.

The railroads have agreed to take back 1,800 men at once and to restate as many of the others as possible when vacancies occur. The men who were hired to take the places of the strikers and promised permanent positions will not be discharged, but it is expected that within a few weeks practically all of the old men will be restored to their former positions.

Substantially the same terms were offered the men a week ago and were rejected by the strikers at a mass meeting last Monday. P. J. Flannery, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Freight Handlers, became convinced, however, that it was useless to prolong the struggle and agreed with E. U. Kimball, president of the Association of Commerce, to call the strike off. He appeared with Mr. Kimball before the aldermanic committee appointed to try to bring about a settlement and announced that the controversy was ended.

Railroad managers reserve the right not to hire any men who were guilty of acts of violence during the strike, and it is understood that on the roads which paid bonuses for continuous service the men who struck have forfeited all claims to shares in the portion fund and will have to start over again as new employees.

Before the strike was called the railroads offered an advance of one-half cent an hour to men paid by the hour and $2.50 a month for the clerks on monthly salaries. This offer would have made a minimum of $2.25 a day. The officers of the union were in favor of accepting the offer, but the radicals voted it down and went on strike. The railroad managers then withdrew the offer, so that the men return to work at the old rate of wages which prevailed before the strike.

NEWVILLE

Newville, June 28.—Mrs. Pete Bliven is here from Tappan on a visit.

Miss Harriet Park left last night for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Anderson, in Iowa.

On Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock occurred the marriage of Miss Leona Englehardt and Charles Tietert at the Richardson farm where her sister and husband, Mrs. Fred Richardson live. Only a few friends and relatives were present at the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Elmer De Haven, the pastor at this place. The happy couple will soon begin housekeeping in a house already furnished in Edgerton.

Mrs. Frank Sherman attended the O. E. S. banquet last evening.

Two Anti-Crime Powers.
The best protection for any city is found not in the number of its policemen but in the number of lights on its streets. Another fact, just as true, though not so well known, is that the greatest protection to society is found not in the statute books but in the newspapers. No one knows the number of men who have refrained from committing crimes against society through fear of exposure in the public press.—Lent's Weekly.

But Not Literally.
It is related of a local preacher in a western town, who was to be absent from his pulpit a fortnight, that he recently announced after the sermon: "The preacher for next Sunday will be Mr. Blank, and the one for the Sunday after you'll find hanging up behind the door on the other side of the vestry."—Youth's Companion.

Mechanically.
Judge—And what did the prisoner say when you told him that you would have him arrested? Compliment—No answer mechanically, yer honor. Judge—Explain, Compliment—He hit me on the head with a hammer.—Everybody's Magazine.

BY WALT MASON

When I am well I josh the doc, and say his pills are vain. "You have no dope," so runs my talk, "that cures no ache or pain. When I am loaded down with life and feel extremely punk, you give me plaster paris pills, or try to heal with bunk. Your boasted science is a fake and in the dark you grope; you never stopped a human ache by handing out your dope." And as I talk I really think that what I say is right, that pills are chased with writing ink when one is in a plight. For skepticism is the stuff in this and vale below; we think we cannot kneel enough to show how much we know. As life is a fixture HUMAN NATURE religion to the all creeds are dreams. But when Old Death comes round to claw the tag, with fear increased we raise a palpitant howdydo, and clamor for a priest.

And then, when I am taken sick, I lean upon the doc, and take his pills, nor make a kick should all those pills be chalk. Ah, then he seems a tower of strength, his science is something fine; but when I'm on my feet at length, I wind these lumps of mine, and ridicule his basswood pills in all the haunts of men, and kick about his modest bills—until I'm sick again.

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY

PEGGY O'NEAL AND THE CABINET.

By A. W. MACY.
For many years William O'Neal kept a tavern in Washington, where many congressmen and senators found board and lodging. The landlord had a good-looking and sprightly daughter, very lively in her deportment. Her name was Margaret, but she was always called "Peggy" O'Neal. Among the boarders were Major John H. Eaton and Gen. Andrew Jackson. Later on Peggy married a man named Timberlake, but in 1828 she was left a widow. The next year Major Eaton married her. When Jackson became president he made Eaton his secretary of war. Thereupon ensued a great hubbub among the ladies, and the other cabinet members refused to associate with Mrs. Eaton, because of her lowly origin and because of certain ugly stories that had been told about her. The fiery president took her part and a Presbyterian minister led the fight against her. There was terrible firing all along the line on both sides, consisting chiefly of letters and newspaper articles. It is said that President Jackson's letters alone, most of them written by his own hand, would make about 100 pages of ordinary book print. The dissolution of the cabinet a little later on was not solely due to this affair, but "Peggy" O'Neal was a contributing cause.

Curious Lore.
It has been remarked as a curious circumstance that Bonaparte and Wellington were born in the same year, and that Burns and Hogg, the Scotch poets, were both born on Jan. 26; but it is more remarkable that the two greatest dramatic poets of modern Europe, Shakespeare and Corneille, both died on the same day in the same year, April 23, 1616. It is further remarkable that Shakespeare, like the great Raphael and Sobieski, died on the anniversary of his birth.—From Fennell's Shakespeare Repository, 1858.

Aerial Gun Practice.
Aerial gun practice is not confined, on our battleships, to one and three pounders. The Springfield rifle, the bullet of which hurled at an angle of 5 degrees elevation, reaches a height of 5,800 feet, is such an effective piece that it will afford no inconsiderable defense against any aeroplanes which would attempt to execute feats of bomb dropping.

WOMAN'S PAGE

MARY ELLEN'S WAY

She Convinces Mr. Mary Ellen of the Unwisdom of Having His Sister Live With Them

MARY ELLEN was doing some serious thinking. The evening before, Mr. Mary Ellen had remarked he thought it would be kind for them to offer his sister Angelina a home, now that she had returned from completing her musical education abroad. "She'll be company for you," said Mr. Mary Ellen, "and it will be nice for her. It'll be sort of a home for her to go off by herself."

"It's awfully good for you to think of it," Mary Ellen had replied then, not having any course of action ready for this emergency. "We ought to do what we can to make people happy," Mr. Mary Ellen had replied.

Then the subject was dropped. And this was the situation absorbing Mary Ellen's earnest attention.

That night she remarked, "I was wondering, dear, if it wouldn't be better to invite Angelina first, just for a visit. Then we could tell better whether we would really like to have her with us."

"Oh, Angel's all right," said Mary Ellen sweetly. "But I don't want anything or anybody to upset your comfort. And she's been living abroad for quite a while and maybe she's changed."

"Well, do as you please," said Mr. Mary Ellen. "But I know you'll get along famously."

"I'm not thinking of myself," said Mary Ellen, kissing him, "but of you." Angel arrived, and the first evening passed pleasantly in telling her experiences abroad. The next day, Mary Ellen suggested, "If it doesn't make any difference to you, why don't you practice in the evening, when Mr. Mary Ellen can hear you. He just dotes on music, and after you've been practicing all day, you'll be too tired to sing all night."

Angelina thought this a good idea, so after Mr. Mary Ellen had finished dinner and was comfortably settling down with his favorite magazine, she began running scales, and humming and whooping and warbling in the most approved Paris fashion. The first evening, Mr. Mary Ellen was rather restless. The second evening, he stared gloomily at space. The third evening, as the concert began, he hurriedly put on his hat, and said he had to see a neighbor. And the fourth evening, he furiously beckoned to Mary Ellen, and in the privacy of the kitchen demanded, "Can't you call her off? My ear-drums are nearly split. It's awful. Why, the neighbors'll be complaining next."

So Mary Ellen diplomatically broke the news to Angel. Whereat Angel sniffed and said it was a pity her brother hadn't an ear for good music, and that she would think he would be glad of the opportunity to cultivate a taste for it.

"I tell you what," said Mary Ellen, "invite some of your musical friends, and create a sort of musical atmosphere, and maybe then he will get to like it better. There's nothing so elevating as good music."

Angelina endorsed this plan heartily and thereafter in the evening, long-haired and unmanicured youths wandered through Mr. Mary Ellen's house, smoking cigarettes, and dropping ashes impartially on Mr. Mary Ellen's specially bound books, in Mr. Mary Ellen's den, on the dining room table, wherever they happened to be. They appropriated Mr. Mary Ellen's easy chair. They thumbed his magazines, though they did not read them. And under Angel's guidance they cooked various messes in a chafing dish in the parlor.

"Head, 'em off," at last he said in desperation to Mary Ellen. "Head 'em off, or I'll take to the club to live."

So Mary Ellen regretfully told Angel that the musical atmosphere would have to fade, and once more Angel sniffed and remarked that her brother was degenerating.

A week or so later, Mary Ellen remarked to Mr. Mary Ellen, "Angel thinks she would like to take a few music pupils. And dear, it's too bad, but some of them will have to come in the evening because they are busy during the day."

"This is no music conservatory," growled Mr. Mary Ellen. "Can't you give her a hint that her visit is about over? Tell her how nice it is to have a studio or something like that. Lots of women live in their studios. Hush it all, I want some peace."

And when Angelina finally departed, Mr. Mary Ellen said, as he sank with a sigh of relief into his Turkish rocker, "Angel isn't a bit like she used to be. A few weeks more of her would have driven me insane. Living abroad has spoiled her."

"People do change," said Mary Ellen.

HOUSEHOLD TALKS

by Henrietta D. Grauel

Tapioch is made from the roots of cassava, "manioc" or manihot, as various countries call the tapioch plant. It is made from a tuber that much resembles our potato but often weighs as much as twenty-five pounds. The tapioch of our market comes from Brazil and Java. Modern improvements have produced many grades of it and it is served in the same manner as rice with cream and sugar, or combined with fresh or dried fruit to furnish dessert. The pearl tapioch must be soaked over night, or at least some hours, and then be subjected to long cooking, but there are other varieties that are more easily prepared.

This recipe for apple-tapioch pudding may be varied by using other fruit than the apples. When fresh fruit is in season, plums, currants, or gooseberries can be used. Canned peaches or other canned fruit may be used in the winter and a date pudding of tapioch is just as nice as a rice and date pudding.

Put a teaspoonful of pearl tapioch and one teaspoonful of salt to soak in a pint and a half of water. Put in a warm place but not where it will be hot. Cut six tart apples in sections; place in a pudding dish, cover with sugar in which is mixed a little nutmeg and cinnamon. Sprinkle with lemon juice. Over this pour the soaked tapioch from which the water has been thoroughly drained. Add a tablespoonful of melted butter and a cup of milk and as much more sugar as will make it sweet enough to suit your taste. Bake until the tapioch is clear and jelly like; about an hour. Cover with a thick meringue and serve with cream or make a pudding sauce for it.

Baked tapioch pudding is cooked in the double boiler and not in the pudding bag, as an inexperienced cook once told me she did.

Five tablespoonfuls of fine tapioch or a fourth of a cup of coarse; one quart of milk, two tablespoonfuls of butter (if you can use half cream omit the butter); yolks of four eggs well beaten. Flavoring: almond or vanilla; four tablespoonfuls of sugar. Cook the tapioch in the milk in the double boiler on the back of the range until it is clear. It will need to be stirred occasionally. Then add the eggs, sugar and flavoring. Cook until as thick as you like it. Place in the serving dish and cover with the whites of the four eggs beaten to a stiff froth and sweetened. Set in a hot oven for a moment to brown lightly and serve with fruit.

Tapioch is excellent served for a cereal for breakfast. It may be cooked over night on the back of the range or in the fireless cooker, just as rice and oatmeal are, except use this pour the soaked tapioch from which the water has been thoroughly drained.

The Evening Chit-Chat

BY RUTH CAMERON

TO THE MANNER BORN.

IT WAS a very warm day, one of those suddenly warm days at the first of the season which make the heat of the day seem almost unbearable and cause us all to wonder why we longed for summer. My lady of leisure, looking fresh and dainty in a white linen dress, with a corsage at her belt and a tan outdoor life on her smooth cheek, had dropped into town for a bit of shopping. She strolled down the aisle with an attendant courier in white flannels following in her wake. She paused near where I was waiting for my change, to interview a floor walker, a little man with an anxious, deprecating air and stooping shoulders.

"The art embroidery? Yes, madam. They were on the third floor, but I think they have moved them. Just a minute, madam, and I'll find out."

He skipped nervously away, and my lady of leisure turned to her courier in white flannels. "Some of those floor walkers," she observed superciliously, "don't know enough to go in when it rains. I thought that what they had the creature for; to know just where things were, and here I have to stay in this hot place while he runs all over the store. It's a shame they can't have more efficient men."

The man in white flannels was standing with his back to me, so I didn't see how he received this speech. If he really was a man, and not just a suit of white flannels, it seems to me that he must have felt shame and disgust even if he didn't show it.

And yet, undoubtedly, the lady of leisure thought to raise herself in his eyes by the air of superiority and disdain with which she treated her inferiors (?)

I have often seen women, and men, too, try to impress some member of the opposite sex by thus asserting their superiority. A man will speak sharply and rudely to the waiter; a woman will rebuke her maid, or draw her skirts back from the contemplation of working men's presence, each thinking to demonstrate what a fine lady or gentleman he or she is. As a matter of fact, they simply demonstrate that they are not "to the manner born."

The real lady or gentleman does not need to assert his or her superiority. It asserts itself.

And for any woman to expect to bewitch a man by such a demonstration—surely that is the height of folly. Surely any man in the possession of his senses will not be pleased to hear a woman speak harshly to or of her less fortunate fellow beings. Surely he will recognize such a spirit as the most certain sign of danger signals for him.

That is; if he is a real man. A real man likes a real woman, and a real woman in the true sense of the word is one who has pity and sympathy and forbearance, never scorn and disdain, for those less fortunate than she.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young girl, seventeen years old and only five feet tall. Do you think I will grow any more? Could you suggest any exercise that would be good? It worries me a good deal to be so short. What is good for a dark neck; also freckles on the arms.

GRAY EYER.

You will probably grow a little more. Some girls don't stop growing until they are twenty-one. Is being a gymnast that you could attend? All the stretching exercises are good and may help you to grow a little taller. Perhaps you can get somebody to put up a turn-pole for you at home, from which you can swing by your hands. Lie flat and stretch your whole body. Stand on tiptoe and get a lot of fresh air. All these things will help you to grow and make you healthy and good to look at, whether you are short or tall. Try lemon juice or buttermilk for dark neck. Do not wear high, tight collars. Massage the neck every evening with cold cream, after washing it with hot water; then wipe off cold cream. In the morning dash on cold water, then apply lemon or buttermilk. Lemon and peroxide are said to remove freckles, but usually nothing is very successful in that line.

DINNER STORIES

"Do you think, my darling," he gurgled, "that your father will consent to our marriage?" "Well, Clarence," she replied, "of course, papa will be sorry to lose me—still!" "But," interrupted the ardent one, "that's not the point."

"I will remind him that instead of losing a daughter he will gain a son." A deadly pallor overspread the middle-aged cheeks.

"Clarence," she cried, "if you really want me I implore you to say nothing so foolish. Papa has three sons living with him now, and he's extraordinarily lonely on the subject."

"I'm delighted at the interest that old mine takes in his handwriting," one proud papa confided to us.

WITH THE DEMOCRATS AT BALTIMORE

At the top—A. A. Jones and D. M. Field. Center—Col. J. M. Fairman. Bottom—Senator Stone and William F. Sapp. A picturesque figure at the national Democratic convention is Col. J. M. Fairman, of Pennsylvania. He has attended national Democratic conventions for so long a time that nobody can remember when he wasn't on hand to help select the party's candidates. A. A. Jones and William F. Sapp are national committeemen from New Mexico and Kansas, respectively. D. M. Field hails from Porto Rico, and is that territory's representative on the national committee. Senator William F. Stone, of Missouri, as Clark's campaign manager, has been much in evidence in the convention city.

BRITISHERS WHO FOUND FAULT WITH OUR TITANIC INQUIRY CONTINUE AT LONDON THEIR INVESTIGATION OF THE DISASTER

British inquiry in full swing.

Since May 3 our English cousins, who had so much fault to find with our senatorial investigator into the Titanic disaster, have been carrying on at London an investigation of their own. It is presided over by Lord Mersey, a solicitor and judge of ripe experience. The English investigation differs from ours in that it is a little more dignified, and not quite so ruthless from the standpoint of Bruce Ismay and the White Star officers who made their escape while passengers went to their death. At the left of the accompanying photograph is seen a model of the Titanic, which has played an important part in the investigation.

SWAT THE FLY; DO IT NOW AND SPARE NOT THE FEMALE OF THE SPECIES FOR SHE'S LOTS MORE DANGEROUS THAN THE MALE

How to kill 8 Billion Flies with one SWAT!

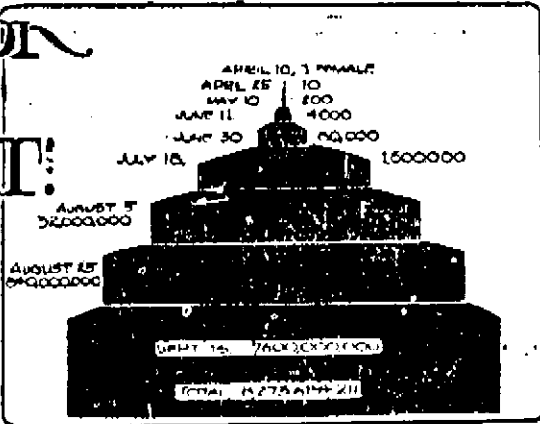

Diagram shows number of flies descended in one season from single female.

Swat the fly! You should have done it long ago, but it isn't too late yet. The fly which you saw on April 10 and tenderly permitted to live, if a female, has had nearly 200 children. Her descendants will number 7,000,000,000 on the 30th day of September unless you get busy immediately. And not one of these pesky little insects will have one half the reverence for you that you had for their ancestor on April 10.

Swat the fly! The fly, say the scientists, is not only the most prolific of insects; he is one of the most dangerous. He holds all the records in disease spreading and is perpetually on the job.

Olson and daughter Mildred of Springfield, Illinois, are guests of Brodhead friends for an extended visit. Mesdames R. W. Kilbuck and W. Lewis and son Francis, were passengers to Monroe Thursday, where they are guests of Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Newman.

are guests of Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Newman. Mrs. W. Shaw has accepted a position with the American Cigar Company at Porto Rico, and will leave in the near future to assume his duties. Horace Blackman, formerly of Brodhead, but now of St. Louis, is spending a day or two at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Meek. Master Harry Doolittle of Stoughton, is spending the week with his grandmother, Mrs. Kate A. Doolittle. Mrs. A. Barnes is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Murdoch and daughters Hazel and Marjorie, in Beloit. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Horton and three children of Solina, California, arrived in Brodhead Thursday for an extended visit at the home of his mother, Mrs. J. K. Horton. Mrs. Cora Parks of Camp Douglas, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. W. Mitchell. George Cartwright is home from Kansas City, Missouri.

Power of Radium. Suppose that the energy of a ton of radium could be utilized in 30 years, instead of being evolved at its invariable slow rate of 1,700 years for half disintegration, it would suffice to propel a ship of 15,000 tons, with engines of 15,000 horsepower, at the rate of 16 knots an hour for 30 years—practically the lifetime of the ship. To do this actually requires one and one-half million tons of coal.—New York World.

Psychology. Arthur—Did you ever notice how one person always reminds you of another? Jim—Well, I notice that whenever I see one of my creditors I always think of that cute little waitress I'm going to marry in June.—Macgendorfer's Blatting.

DIRECTS ASSISTANCE RENDERED ALASKANS

E. P. Bartholf. So deeply engrossed in politics have the American people recently been that the troubles of the Alaskans who were made homeless by the recent volcanic eruptions have been unnoticed or forgotten. The most serious eruptions occurred on the island of Kodiak off the coast of Alaska. The government is helping the unfortunate natives. Captain Commandant E. P. Bartholf, chief of the U. S. revenue cutter service, is directing the assistance.

Seek the Best. Nobleness springs to our eyes whenever we look, rich stores of poetic inspiration, if one has receptivity large enough to take it in and reveal it touched with emotion, the magic light of the imagination. Bravery, goodness and truth lie on every side. We need not seek the exceptional for them, the usual affords more than enough. Look closely with understanding into the common; you will find everywhere the uncommon, the wonderful.—The Christian Register.

Traps for the Righteous. Ay me, how many perils do enfold the righteous man to make him daily fall.—Spencer.

Lost Its Tongue. The Paul Revere bell in the city hall at Bath, Me., lost its 15-pound tongue the other day and became silent for the first time in over 100 years. The bell first hung in the steeple of the North church at Bath. The people of Bath knew that something was amiss when the curfew did not ring at nine o'clock.

Amusing Trick of Messengers. The stamp trick is a very common one with messengers because of the amount of amusement derived from it. It consists in sticking a new stamp on a step or some prominent place, and watching the various attempts of passers-by to pick it up, which, of course, are unsuccessful.—London Mail.

A Little Bit of Love. Is it not the deepest, bitterest cry of many a heart—"nobody cares for me?" There are hosts of men and women ready to give in, who could go bravely on in life's wind and rain, if somewhere a little bit of love awaited for them to keep the heart warm. Let us not begrudge to give this precious bit.—Mark Guy Pearse.
